

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

REPORT.

OFFICE OF THE STATE BOARD OF ASSESSORS,

TRENTON, N. J., October 31, 1907.

To the Legislature of New Jersey:

In compliance with the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to revise and amend an act for the taxation of railroad and canal property, approved April tenth, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four" (which revision was approved March 27th, 1888), the State Board of Assessors herewith submits its twenty-fourth annual report, showing the assessments levied for purposes of State taxation against railroad and canal corporations, under the terms of said act, as qualified by the acts supplementary thereto and amendatory thereof; also showing the State tax levied upon miscellaneous corporations; and likewise the franchise tax assessed against public utility corporations, apportioned to the various municipalities under provisions of Chapter 195, Laws of 1900, and supplements, and (in so far as concerns street railroad corporations) under provisions of Chapter 290, Laws of 1906.

RAILROADS AND CANALS.

For the year 1907, assessments have been levied against one hundred and fourteen railroad corporations and one canal company, the particulars of which assessments will be found in Schedule D of the Appendix to this report. There have been added to the assessment list the following new corporations:

Bay Shore Connecting R. R. Co. (Lehigh Valley System.)
Atlantio City & Shore R. R. Co. (Unclassified.)
Hoboken Manufacturers' R. R. Co. (Unclassified.)

and the following consolidations or mergers have been made:

Irvington R. R. Co., consolidated with the Lehigh Valley R. R. Co. of N. J.

Hoboken & Manhattan R. R. Co., consolidated with the Hudson & Manhattan R. R. Co.

thus making an increase of one corporation assessed.

TRACKAGE STATEMENT.

The total length of track constructed in New Jersey at the close of the year 1906 was:

	Miles.
First track,	2,340.012
Second track,	907.679
Third and fourth tracks,	240.978
Sidings,	1,982.714
Total,	5,471.383
Of which is laid with steel rails,	4,855.888
Of which is laid with iron rails,	615.495
Total,	5,471.383

The total number of miles of canals and feeders in the State is 173.340.

The increase in the aggregate mileage of track over 1905, including all classes, is 158.861 miles.

	Miles.
Increase, steel rails,	153.929
Increase, iron rails,	4.932
Total increase,	158.861

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The capital stock and debt, as reported, are as follows:

Capital stock,	$179,776,263 00
Funded debt,	209,739,502 00
Unfunded debt,	12,161,267 00
Total,	$401,677,032 00

The gross earnings of all lines for the year ending December 31, 1906, were $75,207,759.87.

ASSESSMENT OF 1906.

As noted in our report for the year 1906, the Legislature of that year passed several acts very materially and vitally affecting the subject of railroad taxation, to wit: Chapter 82, providing for the establishment of an "average rate of taxation" to be applied to the assessed valuation of main stem, franchise and tangible personal property; chapter 122, re-defining "main stem," and chapter 280, relegating to local assessment and taxation all property used for railroad purposes outside of main stem, commonly designated as "second class railroad property," and which property had been hitherto subject to valuation and assessment by this board. As likewise noted in the 1906 report, the "average tax rate" was ascertained to be $1.801 per $100 valuation, which rate was applied to the assessment of main stems, franchises and tangible personal property of railroad and canal corporations, resulting in an increased tax of $2,552,538.49, as compared with the tax levied for the previous year (1905) upon the corresponding items of property.

From this assessment ninety-five corporations (out of the one hundred and fourteen corporations assessed) were allowed writs of certiorari, carrying up to the Supreme Court for review the assessments so levied. Of the appellant corporations nine were selected as embodying in their respective cases the salient points involved in the appeals. These corporations were the United New Jersey Railroad and Canal Co. (Pennsylvania R. R. Co., Lessee).

Central Railroad Co. of New Jersey (Philadelphia and Reading Railway Co., Lessee).

Long Dock Co.

Bergen County Railroad Co.

Lehigh Valley Railroad Co.

Morris Canal and Banking Co. (Lehigh Valley R. R. Co., Lessee).

Morris and Essex Railroad (Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R. Co., Lessee).

Trenton and New Brunswick Railroad Co.

The Supreme Court, upon the evidence taken, supported by the arguments of distinguished counsel for the corporations and the State, sustained the legislation of 1906, and dismissed the appeals. As was to be anticipated, in cases of so much importance, writs of error were applied for and granted, carrying the questions involved to the Court of Errors and Appeals for adjudication, and in the latter court the matter is now pending.

Note.—Since writing the above, and before the printing of this report, the Court of Errors and Appeals, in an Opinion handed down by Chief Justice Gummere, decided that Chapter 280, Laws of 1906 (Perkins Act), was unconstitutional and void, and that therefore the valuation and assessment of "second class" railroad property appertains to this board.

ASSESSMENT OF 1907.

As in 1906, the valuation by this board of railroad and canal property for the year 1907 was restricted to "main stem" (including franchise) and "tangible personal property," assessed and taxed at an "average tax rate" computed in conformity with the provisions of Chapter 82, Laws of 1906. This "average tax rate" was ascertained to be $1.627 per $100 valuation, as against $1.801 per $100 valuation in 1906, a falling off in the rate of $0.174 per $100 valuation; so that, while there is shown to be an increase in valuation of $5,512,704.00, there is a decrease in the amount of tax levied to the extent of $248,794.74, which decrease is brought about by the practical operation of statutory law.

The following table will show the comparison of the assessments and tax levied for the years 1906 and 1907, respectively:

COMPARISON OF ASSESSMENTS, 1906 AND 1907.

	Total Assessable for State Uses.	Tax for State Uses.
1907,	$200,045,173 00	$3,254,734 96
1906,	194,532,469 00	3,503,529 70
	<hr/>	<hr/>
Increase,	$5,512,704 00	Decrease, $248,794 74

Under the provisions of Chapter 146, Laws of 1906, all of the above mentioned State tax of $3,254,734.96 (in excess of a sum equal to one-half of one per centum of the total valuation, to be retained for the support of the State government) shall be applied to the maintenance and support of free public schools. Assuming, therefore, that the litigation now pending before the Court of Errors and Appeals shall be finally adjudicated in in favor of the State, and that in consequence thereof the above taxes are collected, the State School Fund will be entitled to receive from the 1907 assessment the sum of $2,254,509.10, in addition to more than $2,500,000, due from the assessment of 1906, which has not as yet been paid by the corporations assessed, pending determination of the litigation above referred to.

The customary tabular statements pertaining to the assessment of railroad and canal property for the year 1907 will be found in the Appendix to this report.

MISCELLANEOUS CORPORATIONS.

For the current year of 1907 assessments have been levied against 10,307 corporations, amounting to $3,356,638.25 tax, classified as follows:

1 Electric light company,	$36 77
3 Life insurance companies incorporated in New Jersey,...	403,090 39
1 Parlor, palace or sleeping car company,.....	3,913 14
5 Express companies,	1,618 23
10,297 Companies taxed upon capital stock,.....	2,947,979 72
<hr/> 10,307	<hr/> $3,356,638 25

The following table is a summary and comparative statement of the assessments levied upon miscellaneous corporations for the years 1884 to 1907, inclusive:

YEARS.	Number of Corporations Assessed.	Amount of Tax Assessed.	Increase in Number of Corporations Assessed.	Increase in Amount of Tax Assessed.	Decrease in Amount of Tax Assessed.
1884,	619	$195,273 51

1906,	10,230	3,515,878 00	165	89,595 52
1907,	10,307	3,356,638 25	77	159,239 75

The above table shows but a slight increase in the number of corporations assessed for taxes of 1907 (as compared with the year 1906), and a decrease in the amount of tax assessed to the extent of $159,239.75. By proclamation of the Governor, dated March 15, 1907, the charters of 1,623 corporations were declared forfeited for non-payment of State taxes assessed for previous years, all of which corporations were included in the tax levy of 1906, so that really the assessment of 1907 includes 1,700 new corporations. And while, as above noted, there is a decrease in the amount of tax assessed, the following statement from the records of the State Treasurer show the actual collections:

For taxes levied in 1907,	$2,356,932 98
For taxes of previous years,	214,930 62
	<hr/>
	$2,571,863 60

Since our last report the board has reviewed and adjusted the tax assessments of more than two hundred corporations, most of which assessments were made upon the basis of full authorized capital stock, by reason of failure to make proper returns showing the amount of capital stock issued and outstanding. Chapter 89, Laws of 1897, allows the right of appeal within the period of three months following the assessment, and we are of the opinion that in very many instances the default in reporting is deliberate and for the purpose of saving interest charges, the corporations affected knowing full well that under the law the tax will be adjusted to the legal basis upon a proper case being made at any time within the statutory period of three months. Certiorari writs have been allowed by the Supreme Court since the date of our last report, carrying up for review the assessments in the following cases:

Ajax Portland Cement Company,.....	Tax of 1906
American Amusement and Construction Company,.....	Tax of 1906

KNICKERBOCKER IMPORTATION COMPANY CASE.

In the annual report of this board for the year 1905 (Part II, page 7) attention was called to the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the "Knickerbocker Importation Company vs. State Board of Assessors" (November Term, 1905), wherein it was held by the court that "stock owned by the corporation which issued it should not be considered in determining the amount of the franchise tax or license fee under the Corporation Tax Act."

Our annual report further said: "The opinion of the Supreme Court seems to rest upon a literal construction of the word 'out-standing,' an interpretation of the law so manifestly to the disadvantage of the State that the Attorney-General has applied for a writ of error, carrying the decision to the Court of Errors and Appeals for review."

In this case the Court of Errors and Appeals, in a very able opinion by Judge Dill, holds that "stock once issued is and remains outstanding within the purview of the Franchise Tax Act, although owned by the corporation issuing the same, until retired and cancelled as provided by statute for the reduction of capital stock."

The original opinion of the Supreme Court was printed in our report for 1905, and for the information of the Legislature the reversal opinion of the Court of Errors and Appeals is published in the Appendix to this report (Exhibit A).

MUNICIPAL FRANCHISE ACT.

Assessments based upon returns made were levied against 291 corporations and 5 individuals, amounting in the aggregate to $626,212.86 tax, classified as follows (the increase in tax over 1906 being the sum of $105,744.51):

Number.	CLASSIFICATION.	Tax.
30	Street railway,	$265,517 52
93	Water,	48,032 92

EXHIBIT A.

NEW JERSEY COURT OF ERRORS AND APPEALS.

KNICKERBOCKER IMPORTATION CO.,
Prosecutor and Defendant-in-Error.
Against
STATE BOARD OF ASSESSORS ET AL.,
Defendants and Plaintiffs-in-Error.

Submitted: June Term, 1906. Decided: March 4th, 1907.

1. Under the "Act Concerning Corporations (Revision of 1896)" there is an implied grant of power to corporations to purchase shares of their own capital stock if such purchase is for a legitimate corporate purpose, but not otherwise. Held, that, under the circumstances disclosed by the record, the prosecutor could not acquire its own stock for the purpose of creating so-called treasury stock, such purpose not being a "legitimate corporate purpose."

2. Stock once issued is and remains outstanding within the purview of the Franchise Tax act, although owned by the corporation issuing the same, until retired and canceled as provided by statute for the reduction of capital stock.

Knickerbocker Importation Co. v. Assessors, 62 Atl. Rep., 266, reversed.

On Error to Supreme Court.

For opinion of the Supreme Court, see 62 Atl. Rep., 266.

For the Plaintiffs-in-Error: Mr. ROBERT H. McCARTER, Attorney-General.

For the Prosecutor and Defendant-in-Error: Mr. RULIF V. LAWRENCE.

The opinion of the Court was delivered by

DILL, J. The prosecutor and defendant-in-error is a corporation under the "Act Concerning Corporations." The certificate of incorporation, filed September 21, 1903, declared its corporate purpose to be the importation and sale of wines and liquors, but contained no power or authority to purchase, to hold or to reissue the shares of its own capital stock, and fixed its authorized capital at $500,000.

Upon the organization of the company, September 26, 1903, an agreement was made between the prosecutor and the Cazanove Champagne Company, a corporation of New Jersey, by which the prosecutor was to take over the assets (specified only as the "rights and everything" of the Cazanove Champagne Co.) and undertake the liabilities (neither specified nor described) of the latter company, and to issue, as the consideration therefor, its entire authorized capital stock, consisting of 1,000 shares of preferred stock and 4,000 shares of common stock, par value $100 each, which the Cazanove Champagne Co. agreed to take and thus to pay for.

As part of the same transaction, and provided for in one and the same contract, the Cazanove Champagne Co. agreed to turn back at once upon receipt of the issued stock 359 shares of preferred stock and 3,359 shares of common stock, amounting at par to $371,800, for the expressed purpose of assisting the prosecutor in procuring the necessary working capital, the stock to be sold as treasury stock, full paid and non-assessable,

The entire stock was accordingly issued in the name of and delivered to the Cazanove Champagne Co., in two certificates. These certificates were endorsed in blank by the Cazanove Champagne Co., returned to the prosecutor and new certificates for stock amounting to $128,200 issued to the Cazanove Champagne Co.

The prosecutor, by formal resolution, declared the whole issue of $500,000 full paid and non-assessable, and so reported to the State, certifying the whole issue as fully paid.

The $371,800 of stock was entered on the prosecutor's books as a surplus asset, designated as full paid treasury stock, and the $500,000, the estimated value of the property thus purchased, was credited as against the $500,000 of stock issued.

Subsequently the prosecutor sold 258 shares of the treasury stock.

The prosecutor filed its report with the State Board of Assessors, stating, as of January 1, 1904, that its entire issue of $500,000 was fully paid, but that prior to January 1, 1904, 3,460 shares had been returned to the treasury, and claiming that therefore only $154,000 of its stock was issued and outstanding on that day.

The State Board of Assessors fixed the franchise tax at one-tenth of one per cent. upon $500,000 of stock issued.

The prosecutor insisted that the tax was illegal, "because stock which has been issued and subsequently returned into the treasury and accepted by its board of directors as treasury stock cannot be considered as outstanding," and upon a writ of certiorari the Supreme Court held accordingly that the corporation was not taxable upon the shares of its own stock thus acquired and held by it, and reduced the franchise tax from $500 to $154 (62 Atl. Rep., 266).

From the foregoing statement of fact it appears that there was, in the first instance, a binding subscription by the Cazanove Champagne Co. for the full authorized stock issue of $500,000. This subscription fixed the basis of the franchise tax, irrespective of the question of the regularity or validity of the issue. (American Pig Iron Storage Co. v. State Board of Assessors, 27 Vroom [56 N. J. L.], 389.)

Because the entire authorized capital of $500,000 was issued and delivered to the Cazanove Champagne Co., the prosecutor was "taxable with respect to the amount of capital stock issued and outstanding as a fixed factor, without regard to the purpose for which the capital stock was issued or whether it was issued for value or not." (Storage Battery Co. v. State Board of Assessors, 31 Vroom [60 N. J. L.], 66, at p. 69; affirmed, 32 Vroom, [61 N. J. L.], 289.)

The answer of the prosecutor is that because the corporation had acquired, by purchase or donation, all of the original outstanding issue of $500,000 excepting stock of the par value of $154,000, therefore the corporation was only liable to be taxed in the sum of $154.

This position of the prosecutor is challenged upon two grounds: First, that the prosecutor could not legally acquire its own stock, by purchase or donation, for the purpose disclosed by the record, because it was not a "legitimate corporate purpose"; and, second, that stock once issued remains outstanding and subject to the franchise tax until retired and canceled in the method prescribed by our Corporation Act for the reduction of capital stock.

Under the Corporation Act of 1896 there is an implied grant of power to corporations to purchase shares of their own capital stock, provided such purchase is required for legitimate corporate purposes, but not otherwise. (Chapman v. Ironclad Rheostat Co., 33 Vroom [62 N. J. L., 497; Berger v. U. S. Steel Corporation, 18 Dick. [63 N. J. Eq., 809.]

Vice-Chancellor Stevens succinctly summarizes the decisions and illustrates correctly the limitations of the rule. (Oliver v. Rahway Ice Co., 19 Dick. [64 N. J. Eq., 597].

Therefore the attempt of the prosecutor to acquire its own stock was ineffectual unless for a "legitimate corporate purpose," and the burden of demonstrating the legitimacy of its purpose is upon the prosecutor.

The proofs in this case fall short of such demonstration.

The purpose of the prosecutor in acquiring this stock is manifest, because this purchase is but a part of an entire transaction. The organization of the prosecutor, the subscription by the Cazanove Champagne Co., the issuance of the stock and the return thereof were all provided for in the same contract, were concurrent transactions, the purpose of the whole undertaking being to create so-called treasury stock and dispose of it upon the representation that it was fully paid and non-assessable, and at a price inferentially below par, and out of the proceeds to provide working capital for the prosecutor.

The Cazanove Champagne Co. subscribed for $500,000 of the stock of the prosecutor. The prosecutor could not satisfy this obligation by accepting a less value, either in cash or property, and the Cazanove Champagne Co. could not, even with the consent or the connivance of the prosecutor, discharge itself of the liability to pay its subscription in full by paying a less sum either in money or property. Our statutes expressly forbid it.

There is no adequate proof of dollar for dollar value in the property received by the prosecutor for the stock issued therefor.

The property is described as "the rights and everything" of the Cazanove Champagne Co. There is no other description of the property or competent proof of its tangibility or value.

The allegations of assumption of liability by the prosecutor are not evidence, and are of no assistance in determining the actual value received, because there is no proof as to the extent or substantiability of the liability.

The transaction was practically this.

The prosecutor issued $500,000 of its stock to the Cazanove Champagne Co., receiving certain undescribed, indefinite rights which were placed upon the books of the prosecutor as an asset at a valuation of $500,000.

As part of the same transaction, and expressly provided for in the contract, the Cazanove Champagne Co. forthwith returned $371,800 of this issue to the prosecutor, retaining only $128,200 of stock.

This appears to have been the net consideration for the property transferred.

The record lacks the facts essential to a judicial determination that this $128,000 of stock was fully paid and non-assessable. Nevertheless, if this be granted, the position of the prosecutor, that the Knickerbocker Importation Co. thus acquired a bona-fide paid up capital of $500,000 and a surplus represented by $371,800 par value of full paid stock, cannot be sustained. This $871,800 of book assets, capital and surplus, consist only of the property for which, stripped of all indirection, the prosecutor paid $128,200 in stock.

We are not warranted by the evidence in finding that this growth of $128,200 into $871,800 of assets, a net increase of $743,600 in valuation, was a legitimate transaction, and one for the accomplishment of which the prosecutor might lawfully acquire its own stock. This increase of assets was justified only by evidence of bookkeeping entries and resolutions of the directors.

Neither bookkeeping nor mere recitative language in resolutions of a board of directors creating values can be accepted as the equivalent of the proof of bona-fide value required by our statute where stock is issued for property purchased.

Judge by the rule either of "good faith" or "true value" as applicable to stock issues, the proofs in this case do not satisfy us of the legality of this transaction.

Whether the statute (P. L., 1905, p. 501) to which we have been referred has any application to such situation is not pertinent to this decision.

We are forced to the conclusion that the record does not demonstrate a "legitimate corporate purpose" in the subscription, issue and return of this stock. The law, therefore, declares such transactions invalid. (Morawetz on Private Corporations, Section 112, [2d Ed.]; see Maryland Trust Co. v. National Mechanics' Bank, 63 Atl. Rep., 70).

But if we had reached an opposite conclusion, the result would be the same.

The contention of the prosecutor is that the amendment contained in the Act of 1892, by which, in the fourth section of the Act of 1884, the words "issued and outstanding" were added to the words "capital stock," changed the law and enabled the corporation, by the acquisition of its shares by purchase or donation, to withdraw such shares from the class of stock issued and outstanding and thus to reduce the amount of the franchise tax to the extent of the shares thus acquired.

This has been otherwise determined, and we think correctly, by the Supreme Court.

Depue, J., said:

"By several acts passed in 1878, 1879 and 1885 (Rev. Sup., pp. 151, 152), incorporated companies were empowered to increase or decrease their capital stock. In amending the fourth section of the Act of 1884 by the Act of 1892, the words 'issued and outstanding' were inserted after the words 'capital stock,' with a view to adapt that section more clearly to such changes in the capital stock of these corporations. This verbal change in expression made no material alteration in the meaning of the law." (American Pig Iron Storage Co. v. Assessors, 27 Vroom [56 N. J. L.], 389, at p. 393, 394.)

The "Act Concerning Corporations" (Sections 27, 29 and 30) provides for the methods of retiring, reducing or decreasing capital stock. It throws certain safeguards about, and imposes certain restrictions upon such changes and alterations in the corporate organization, requiring certain proceedings on the part of both directors and stockholders, and notice by publication, and expressly providing against the release from liability of stockholders for unpaid stock, and against the release from obligations of the corporation to the State.

In Siegman v. Electric Vehicle Co., decided at this term of this court (not yet reported), Mr. Justice Pitney, speaking for this court and referring to the reduction of capital stock in connection with Sections 27, 29 and 30 of the "Act Concerning Corporations (Revision of 1896)," says:

"Taking the three sections together, they are designed to make sure, first, that capital shall not be reduced by indirection nor without deliberate and considered action taken for that avowed purpose, first by the directors and afterwards by two-thirds in interest of the stockholders, each stockholder having reasonable notice of the meeting and of the purpose for which it is called; and, secondly, that formal written evidence of the action taken is to be lodged with the Secretary of State and published in a newspaper, to the end that all the world may be apprised thereof."

Irrespective of the prohibitions contained in Section 30 of the Corporation Act the creation by the Legislature of a precise method by which, under certain conditions, stock may be retired and canceled, is a clear expression of an intention that such corporation shall accomplish this same result in no other way.

A parity of reasoning is found in those cases which hold that the effect of a separate act of the Legislature providing for the organization of a class of corporations, or corporations with certain powers, in ways and under conditions inconsistent with or different from those prescribed by the "Act Concerning Corporations," is to prohibit their organization under the "Act Concerning Corporations." (Richards v. Dover, 32 Vroom [61 N. J. L.], 400; Domestic Telegraph and Telephone Co. v. Newark, 20 Vroom [49 N. J. L.], 344; Montclair Military Institute v. Assessors, 36 Vroom [65 N. J. L.], 516.)

The prosecutor could not avoid its liability to the State to pay a franchise tax based upon the stock issue of $500,000 by corporate in-buying of its own stock.

Stock once issued is and remains outstanding until retired and canceled by the method provided by statute for the retirement and cancellation of capital stock; and the words "retirement" and "cancellation," wherever used in the Franchise Tax Act or in the amendment of that Act in the Laws of 1906 to which we have been referred (P. L., 1906, p. 31) must be interpreted to mean permanent retirement and actual cancellation by the method and in full compliance with the provisions of the statute.

The original assessment by the State Board of Assessors was lawfully made and should be affirmed, and the judgment of the Supreme Court should be reversed.
